Your Local, Community Minded Agent

Having spent 20 plus years in the Rock and Roll merchandise industry, the creative process of helping his client's buy and sell Real Estate comes quite naturally to Tom. Each transaction presents its own scenario, with challenges, excitement, trials, and ultimately and ideally, success.

As a Lafayette resident, Tom is driven by community involvement. Whether it be coaching Little League or CYO basketball, bringing LIVE music to the area via his position as VP of the Board of Directors at Lafayette's Town Hall Theatre, fighting for the preservation of our open spaces, or hosting their annual Halloween House extravaganza, the work Tom does locally affects many of us.

His passion for Real Estate is evident. Tom assists and helps his clients in all facets of the home buying or selling process. His integrity and his dynamic, enthusiastic, and supportive approach to his business affords his client's the advantage necessary to complete a successful Real Estate transaction. It doesn't matter if you are a first time buyer or an experienced one, an out of the area client or a local, Tom goes the extra mile to insure that his client's understand that he is a relational agent, NOT a transactional agent!
In short, he makes them feel like a Rock Star!

Go to www.TomStack.com to learn more, or call Tom directly. He'd love to sit down with you under a Palapa at El Charro and learn how he can help you!
